The Business Scene in Sta. Ana, Pampanga

Sta. Ana is a first-class (1st) municipality with an economy rooted in agriculture while steadily embracing commercial and business development. Its strategic location makes it an emerging destination for trade and investment.

Agriculture is the backbone of Sta. Ana's economy, with the production of “palay” or rice, sugarcane, and vegetables that contribute to both the local food supply and regional trade.

Sta. Ana has also seen the steady growth of service-oriented businesses including financial institutions such as Producers Bank that offers essential financial services to various sectors.

Producers Bank: Your Financial Partner in Pampanga

With the addition of Sta. Ana Branch, Producers Bank now has four (4) branches strategically located in Pampanga. The other branches are in Angeles, Downtown – San Fernando, and Mabalacat.

Other nearby branches are located in Bataan: Balanga and Dinalupihan; and Zambales: Castillejos, Iba, Olongapo, Palauig, San Felipe, and San Marcelino.

With a nationwide network of three hundred twenty one (321) branches, Producers Bank offers a wide range of banking products to meet the needs of various customer segments.

The Bank also provides essential banking services such as 24/7 ATM services, bank-to-bank fund transfers via InstaPay and PESONet, and acts as a direct agent for Western Union facilitating diverse financial transactions.

Through Sta. Ana Branch, Producers Bank reaffirms its commitment in partnering with farmers and entrepreneurs in producing more wealth for the country. This aligns with the goals of the Financial Inclusion Program of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP).
