The Business Scene in Burgos, Pangasinan

Burgos is a third (3rd) class municipality in western Pangasinan where agriculture, local enterprise and tourism continue to shape its business landscape.

At the heart of Burgos' economy is agriculture. Its fertile lands and favorable climate support the production of various crops, including palay or rice, coconut, bamboo, and other agricultural products. Fishing also contributes to the agricultural livelihood, providing an important source of income for local fisherfolk and supporting related businesses in the community.

The tourism sector of Burgos is slowly emerging due to its natural attractions such as Cabongaoan White Sand Beach, Pao Beach, Paratek Beach, Rolling Hills, and Sangbay Falls. These destinations attract visitors and create opportunities for local businesses, particularly those engaged in accommodation, food services, transportation, tour services, and other tourism-related activities.

Producers Bank: Your Financial Partner in Pangasinan

With the addition of Burgos Branch, Producers Bank now has thirty eight (38) branches and branch lite units (BLU) strategically located in Pangasinan.
